Hi Richard,

Apologies for the many emails. I'm also hoping to chat to you about the Strategy. I'm not sure how we want to go forward. The Strategy has met resistance and the timing has not been right. But this is a great educational piece. How do we best get this across the finish line to be able to focus on implementation etc. We've talked previously about framing it as an "approach" rather than a "strategy" to show how this is work we are already doing.

Grateful your views. I'll look to schedule a few minutes in the coming days to touch base on a few deliverables.

Thanks

Hi [redacted]

Please find enclosed the updated PS-040702 docket (also saved here: [https://\[redacted\]](https://[redacted])) for your review [redacted] and [redacted] have reviewed. Of note:

1. We have updated the C-FI Strategy since it was sent up to MINO in June:
 - a. Previous Ministerial foreword has been replaced with a new version; and
 - b. References to "diaspora communities" have been scrubbed.
2. We have created a new memo that is adapted for the new Minister.

I understand that we are holding off on moving this up further until next week, but if you approve, we will send the Ministerial foreword to translation this week.

Thanks!

Hello ladies,

SADMO has asked that these two dockets be resubmitted, as they were never signed by the previous MIN.

PS-040167: Memo to the MIN - Canada's Counter-FI Strategy

PS-040548 - Memo to the MIN - Public Consultations "What We Heard" Report

We need to change Minister name to Leblanc where mentioned / make sure the notes make sense speaking to the new minister and new PS#s

Thanks,
