ECConnex Case

Subject

Possible legal offences committed by Maxime Bernier

Topic

Political Financing

Description

Description

I would like to make a complaint regarding possible legal offences committed by Maxime Bernier, a candidate in this election and leader of the federally registered People's Party of Canada, and by Tyrone McAllister, a volunteer with a local electoral district association of the People's Party of Canada.

On September 29, 2019 a planned rally and fundraiser for the PPC (and/or one or more undisclosed local candidates and/or EDAs) had been scheduled for Hamilton, Ontario. This was to feature the services and entertainment of Mr. Dave Rubin, a U.S. citizen and broadcaster who is well-known as a political agitator.

The local PPC organizers announced on September 26 that the event would need to be cancelled because its host, Mohawk College, had evaluated the necessary security costs and informed them of a substantial increase. (This is likely due to the large number of far-right elements within the PPC, such [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Mr. Rubin, who is wealthy and not a Canadian citizen nor resident in Canada (he resides in California), offered to cover these expenses himself from his own pocket following entreaties by Maxime Bernier and Tyrone McAllister. Their responses to Mr. Rubin's offer to make this large cash donation to the PPC are included here.

I also believe the donation of Mr. Rubin's services (he is a very well-known broadcaster with many tens or even hundreds of thousands of listeners) to this fundraiser event also constitutes a donation in kind to the PPC, local candidates, or the riding association.

I believe the donation of Mr. Rubin's services well below their fair market value (I believe his speaking fees are above five figures in US dollars) to be an illegal donation and I believe his donation of funds to cover security costs for his event to be an illegal donation. I believe that Mr. Bernier and Mr. McAllister are fully aware that Mr. Rubin is a non-citizen and non-resident of Canada, and that they nevertheless wished to have him donate to the PPC, and therefore acted in furtherance of this illegal fundraising activity.

ECConnex Case

Subject

fees for a campaign event in Hamilton

Topic

Foreign Interference

Description

Description

Would like to bring this to Elections Canada's attention. A US citizen (Dave Rubin) is offering to pay the fees for a campaign event in Hamilton for the leader of the PPC, Maxime Bernier. This seems like it would be a violation of campaign finance law and Elections Canada may want to take a look at this event.

I assume that there are rules about foreign influence in our elections. Maxine Bernier, head of the PPC had a rally in Hamilton where the American Dave Reuben came to speak. Reuben is a paid speaker, typically, but he also paid for extra security at the event. Is this not a foreign influence? Is he allowed to pay for that on Bernier's campaign's behalf?

I found this information in a National Post article. This is the link to it.

Hi @ebalgord, can you point out my far right cred? Or how I've led anyone to the neo-Nazi movement? I lost family in the Holocaust and grew up around survivors you sniveling, pathetic, weasel of a human...

Dave Rubin is a far-right YouTube personality and a significant part of a radicalization process ushering people into the neo-Nazi movement, according to a recently published study out of Cornell University which analyzed 79 million comments and over 330,000 videos to track the effect.

You should acquaint yourself with Elections Canada website as you will not be able to accept a single penny from Rubin et al - political contributions from foreigners are illegal in Canada. And probably they already knew that ... their pledges are not gonna cost them a penny.

Bonjour [REDACTED]

Our Chief Agent forwarded your email message below to my attention. I respond in English as I have added two members of my team who are unilingual English.

I respond to your questions below:

- 1) The Electoral District Association (EDA) of Hamilton Centre is the contractual authority for this event. The EDA paid the venue and security deposit for the event and awaits the final invoice from Mohawk College to finalize payment of such.
- 2) David Rubin did not pay the security fee (refer to answer 1 above)
- 3) The Hamilton Centre EDA entered into a contractual engagement with Mr. Rubin's agency to appear at this event. He received half of the fee up front and the second half is being processed this week.
- 4) The contractual engagement with Mr. Rubin included a clause with respect to the PPC's reimbursement of all travel expenses (airfare, hotel, chauffeured vehicle). The EDA awaits a final invoice from Mr. Rubin's executive assistant to finalize payment of these expenses.
- 5) The PPC charged a fee to attend the event. $75 for tickets closer to the stage area and $50 for general admission elsewhere in the theatre.

Please advise if you require copies of all said documents.

Regards,

Johanne

Bonjour [REDACTED]

La présente missive fait suite à notre conversation téléphonique de ce matin. Comme discuté, je suis un enquêteur auprès du Bureau du commissaire aux élections fédérales, et nous avons reçu une plainte concernant le financement de la table ronde qui s'est déroulé à Hamilton, Ontario, en fin de semaine avec M. Bernier. Afin de me permettre d'analyser la plainte dans son ensemble, j'aurais besoin que vous répondiez aux questions suivantes:

- 1) Qui était responsable d'assumer l'entièreté des coûts de l'évènement précité y compris tous les coûts pour la sécurité?
- 2) Avant l'évènement M. David Rubin a affiché un tweet pour offrir à payer les coûts pour la sécurité additionnelle qui a été jugée nécessaire pour tenir l'évènement. Est-ce qu'il a payé ces coûts?
- 3) Est-ce que M. Rubin a été rémunéré?
- 4) Qui a assumé les frais de déplacement de M. Rubin?
- 5) Est-ce que le parti a chargé un prix d'entrée ou sollicité un don des gens qui y ont assisté?

Bien cordialement,

Hello Johanne

Thank you for your response. I suggest that you and the EDA contact Political Financing and Support at Elections Canada to ensure that the financing of this event is reported properly – see attached link, I refer you to: “The party leader's tour expenses are election expenses of the party...” As the monitoring of expenses is within the purview of Elections Canada I encourage you to contact them.

Hello

My name is [REDACTED] and I am an investigator with the Office of the Commissioner of Canada Elections. The Commissioner is responsible for ensuring compliance with, and enforcement of, the Canada Elections Act (the Act).

I am writing to inform you that we have completed a comprehensive review of your complaint that alleged that Mr. Ken Rubin, a US citizen, made a contribution to the People's Party of Canada (PPC) and the party leader, Mr. Maxime Bernier. Our review, which included a review of both the information contained in your complaint as well as information obtained from other sources, has led us to conclude that no offence has been committed under the Act. Mr. Rubin did not provide a non-monetary or monetary contribution to the PPC or Mr. Bernier, nor did he pay for any expenses related to the event that took place in Hamilton on the weekend of September 28-29, 2019.

As there is no further action to be taken by our Office with respect to the issue you have identified, we will be closing our file.

We thank you for your interest in the electoral process.
