Location: CSIS HQ / In person

Dear colleagues, we would like to host a half day session with you on April 10th to fulfill two main objectives:

- Present you to the outcomes of a CSIS Innovation Pod that has been carried out in March to define what we understand as foreign interference as well as to map out our own logic model / strategic framework on it. As of a next step out of that effort is to determine how our model gets articulated within the broader GoC environment you're part of. Over the first 90 minutes, we propose to introduce you to our finding and roadmap and then open the discussion in terms of roles, responsibilities and tools.
- From 10:30-12:00, a regular SITE TF monthly meeting will take place. While we expect members and official observers to attend, those of you interested in attending the SITE discussion are welcome (an agenda will follow in the high side for those with access).

Salutations cordiales, on vous espérant nombreux en personne avec nous pour cette discussion fondatrice.
