Case Summary

Case Summary:

██████████ has seen signs that disparage the labral party by stating that no farming no food logo with the labral party logo crossed out. ED 35064

Its says its sponsored by the "no farm no foods" group. Does not appear to be affiliated with any other party.

This farming group is from India. What are the laws? is this legal? No other identifying logos. These are on the streets and not on properties.

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for contacting Elections Canada on September 15, 2021.

Elections Canada is the independent agency responsible for the conduct of federal elections and referendums. We administer the Canada Elections Act (the Act) as adopted by Parliament. However, we do not conduct enforcement activities, such as investigations or the prosecution of offences.

We have redirected your complaint to the Office of the Commissioner. The Commissioner of Canada Elections is the independent officer whose duty is to enforce the Act and the Referendum Act. Please note that when Elections Canada redirects a complaint to the Commissioner, this does not mean that Elections Canada views this complaint as an offence under the Act, but merely as a matter that falls under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner.

Should it warrant further consideration, the Office of the Commissioner will investigate.

If you have further questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact us again.

Yours sincerely,

Elections Canada
