Subject: RCMP conclusion to FAI investigation

Good afternoon [REDACTED]

This email is to provide an update on the RCMP investigation into the potential FAI emails received and an encounter Mr. Chong experienced.

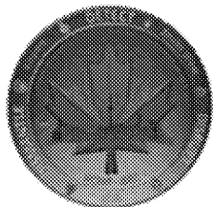

INSET-GTA investigators were able to determine that the emails were likely authored by the same person and were sent from outside Canada. Although the emails are antagonistic, they do not satisfy the elements of an uttering threats offence. The individual from the virtual all-candidates meeting cannot be identified as the list of registered participants was not retained by the organizers.

INSET-GTA investigators have determined that the information provided, although compelling, is not actionable. This is to notify you of the conclusion of this file.

Can you please share this with Mr. Chong. If either of you wish to discuss the conclusion further, please contact me.

Kindly,

Constable [REDACTED]
