Meeting 2 – Thursday, August 5th, 2021

Time: 11:00am-12:00pm

Attendees: Michael Chong and [REDACTED]

Location: Fergus riding office and The Vault Cafe

Details: Unknown

- CSIS called [REDACTED] and she informed Michael on June 7th, 2021, via email. Michael then called [REDACTED] (discussion unknown) and informed [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] would be contacting her. Following this, the meeting was setup for August 5th.

Meeting 3 – Friday, February 25th, 2022

Time: 12:15-12:45pm

Attendees: Michael Chong, [REDACTED], and another CSIS employee (name/title currently unknown)

Location: Fergus riding office

Details:

- [REDACTED] was not in the meeting but was asked by Michael to gather information for him as the meeting was taking place.
- [REDACTED] provided Michael with information on two items that he shared with the two CSIS officials:
 1. Information he had on the Puslinch all-candidates virtual debate during the 2021 federal election.
 - The virtual debate took place on Wednesday, September 15, 2021.
 - ISSUE: there was an attendee that asked questions that were pro-PRC leaning.
 - [REDACTED] shared event details with Michael who shared it with CSIS.
 - Further background information: [REDACTED] contacted the organizers in May 2023 ([REDACTED] – South Wellington Lions and [REDACTED] - Optimist Club of Puslinch) for debate details, the organizers informed him that they destroyed the records of the debate's RSVP. The video was a livestreamed and we don't currently know if it was recorded.
 2. Information he had on Michael's meeting with [REDACTED].
 - [REDACTED] was introduced to Michael by [REDACTED].
 - [REDACTED] shared the meeting details from Michael's calendar with Michael who shared it with CSIS.
 - [REDACTED] does not currently have the details he shared with Michael on February 25th but believes Michael met with [REDACTED] during the 2017 CPC leadership race.
